7. In circumstances where the departure frees an office that can be re-assigned, the designated supervisor notifies the Regional Dean's office of the date the office will be vacated.
8. Human Resources makes arrangements as required for an Exit Survey and/or Interview.
9. Human Resources updates employee's Banner profile and provides the appropriate notification to payroll.

The Emplo

1. The designated supervisor or designate claims College assets from the employee (College ID, keys, parking pass, supplies, credit card, laptop, cell phone, etc.) and completes the Employee Departure checklist with the departing employee.
2. The designated supervisor or designate returns College assets to the appropriate department and forwards the Employee Departure checklist to the appropriate Human Resources Advisor.

Post-Termination:

1. Payroll issues a Record of Employment consistent with Canada Revenue Agency's requirements.

NOTE: Retirement (exception to normal resignation procedure):

Where pre-retirement leave is given, employment terminates at the expiry of leave period.

If an employee resigns from a permanent position and is aged 55 or older, it will be considered retirement. Administrators dealing with retiring employee's will primarily follow the same process as is followed for resigning employees with a few exceptions:

When the designated supervisor notifies IT of effective date of discontinuation of access to College email, servers and etc: the date of discontinuation will be the employee's last day of pre-retirement leave or vacation leave.

The designated supervisor, in consultation with the departing employee, makes arrangements for an appropriate departmental recognition celebration. In the case of the retirement of a long service employee, the designated supervisor may make arrangements for the purchase of a gift according to the College's procedure 11.01 on "Retirement Recognition."
